

City of Cincinnati

Contact: Tiffaney Hardy, (513) 352-5377
tiffaney.hardy@cincinnati-oh.gov

Date: February 27, 2009

City of Cincinnati Launches Urban Gardening Pilot Program

Public information session to answer questions and share information

WHAT: The City of Cincinnati is pleased to announce the launch of the 2009 Urban Gardening Pilot Program to transition vacant, City-owned parcels of land into food production areas. For 2009, the City is offering approximately 15 parcels of land in 11 neighborhoods have been identified that can be rented out.

A public informational meeting will be held at City Hall to answer questions about the pilot program. Anyone interested in participating or supporting the pilot program as a gardening mentor, partner, or sponsor is welcome to attend.

Information and applications are available on the City's website at www.cincinnati-oh.gov. Applications may also be picked up in person in City Hall Room 104. Anyone unable to attend the informational meeting, may contact Tiffaney Hardy at (513) 352-5377 for more information.

WHEN: March 9th, 2009 5pm-6:30pm

WHERE: Council Chambers, City Hall 3rd Floor 801 Plum Street Cincinnati, OH 45202

WHO: Anyone interested in learning about the City's Urban Gardening Program.

###