

The Park Board is pleased to announce that CET will again air the award-winning local documentary, “Cincinnati Parks: Emeralds in the Crown” during the month of September.

The documentary, produced by CET’s Kim Mlinek, describes the story of the creation of our world class park system. “To me the heart of the story is the legacy from citizens who acted on a vision of a public park system. Our city parks remain strong and vibrant to this day thanks to the support of the entire Cincinnati community,” states Park Director Willie F. Carden, Jr.

Encore presentations of “Cincinnati Parks: Emeralds in the Crown” air on CET these dates:

Monday, September 20 at 9pm
Friday, September 24 at 10pm
Sunday, September 26 at 4pm

“Cincinnati Parks Recollections” New Special Short Segments Also Airing in September

CET had so much great material that did not fit into the one hour allotted for Emeralds in the Crown, that they also produced a series of short segments entitled “Cincinnati Parks Recollections.” These enjoyable segments were edited from interviews that did not make the final cut of the full, one-hour documentary.

The segments will air back-to-back on:

Saturday evening, September 25 at 10:50 p.m.
Sunday afternoon, September 26 at 3:50 p.m.

The individual spots will air at approximately 7:28 p.m. on these weeknights:

9/20 “Volunteers”
9/21 “Rapid Run”
9/22 “Burnet Woods”
9/23 “Weddings”
9/2 “Experiences”
9/27 “Neighbors”
9/28 “The Spencers”

Program information and air times for “Emeralds in the Crown” and “Recollections” segments are available at www.CETconnect.org/CincinnatiParks.
