

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Date: July 28, 2010

Contact: Timothy M. Jamison, P.E.
Acting City Traffic Engineer
Transportation and Engineering
tim.jamison@cincinnati-oh.gov

Macy's Music Festival
Festival513
July 30-31, 2010

Downtown Cincinnati will host a wide variety of exciting entertainment opportunities this weekend!

Beginning on Friday night, July 30, the Macy's Music Festival kicks off at Paul Brown Stadium. Featuring some of the biggest names and most exciting performers in R&B, jazz, hip-hop, and soul, this two night delight will be bigger and better than ever in 2010. Parking will be available in all lots surrounding Paul Brown Stadium.

For information about the Macy's Music Festival, please visit: <http://www.macysmusicfestival.com/>

Festival513 is a collection of vendors selling arts & crafts, food, and other items of interest. Booths are scheduled to be open from 6:00 PM until 2:00 AM on Friday and from 10:00 AM until 2:00 AM Saturday. To allow room for all the vendors, Elm Street will be closed to all vehicular traffic between Second Street and Mehring Way. This closure will take place on Friday, July 30 at 7:00 AM. Elm Street will remain closed until Monday, August 2 at 6:00 AM.

For information about Festival513, please visit:
<http://www.freewebs.com/festival513/>

In addition, the Cincinnati Reds will be hosting the Atlanta Braves for a 3 game series. The game on Friday starts at 7:10 PM. The game on Saturday starts at 4:10. Sunday's afternoon game is scheduled to start at 1:10 PM.

For more information about our department, please visit www.cincinnati-oh.gov/dote