“Booth Residence Gets Home Makeover”

City, Salvation Army cut ribbon on newly renovated apartments

WHAT: City and Salvation Army officials will cut the ribbon on 150 newly renovated apartments at the Salvation Army’s Booth Residence. Home to over 165 senior citizens, many with disabilities, this 26 year old assisted living facility has now benefited from major improvements. City’s investment of $750,000 leveraged over $12 million of total improvements. This is part of the City ‘s continuing investment in neighborhood revitalization.

WHEN: Tuesday, December 11, 2007
10:30 a.m.

WHERE: 6000 Towne Vista Drive (North Bend to Center Hill to Towne Vista Drive)
College Hill

PARTICIPANTS: Vice Mayor David Crowley
Cincinnati City Council
Salvation Army Advisory Board
Cincinnati Community Development & Planning
