

Permit Rules and Limitations

1201-57. Permits

- (A) Permits required: It shall be unlawful for any person to commence or proceed with any operation for which a permit is required by the provisions of this code without first obtaining such permit and paying the fee hereinafter prescribed for same. Each permit shall be kept on the premises at all times and shall be subject at all times to inspection by the Fire Chief. A permit shall not be transferable, and any change in use of the premises shall require a new permit.
- (B) Permits issued: It shall be the duty of the Fire Chief to examine the application for permits within a reasonable time after filing. If, after examination, the Fire Chief finds no objections, and it appears that the proposed operation will be in compliance with the provisions of this code, the Fire Chief shall approve such application and issue a permit for the proposed operation as soon as practicable. If his examination reveals otherwise, the chief shall reject such application, noting the findings on the application and notifying the applicant.
- (C) Permit limitation: Any permit issued by the Fire Chief under the provisions of this code shall be valid only for the time specified on the permit.

1201-63 Revocation of Permits.

The Fire Chief is hereby authorized and empowered to recall and revoke any permit for any one of the following reasons:

- (A) When the permit has been issued in error;
- (B) When the permit was based upon an application which contained a false or misleading statement or a misrepresentation of a material fact;
- (C) When any provision of this permit or any applicable provisions of this fire prevention code are violated.
- (D) When the nature of the action committed creates a hazard to life and or property 1201-65. Permit Fees.

No permit shall be issued by the Fire Chief until the fees hereinafter prescribed shall have been paid:

- (a) All permits required under Title XII of the Cincinnati Fire Prevention Code are $20 per year except for permits required under Title XII of the Cincinnati Fire Prevention Code for which a different fee is established or for which a shorter time period is specified.
