

University of Cincinnati

Lead Safe Renovator – Work Practices Course

- This course teaches lead safe renovation practices, health exposure and effects, lead regulations and specialized cleaning methods are taught to control lead-contaminated dust (using wet methods and HEPA vacuums).
- After successfully completing the course, the person may represent to the public that the services are being supervised or performed by a lead-safe renovator in Ohio. Course recognized in Indiana and Kentucky – lead safe work practices.
- Course in compliance for partial training towards new EPA Renovator Certification Rule

For course information and registration, call:

1-800-207-9399

Leave a message for Sharon Smith

2009 Course Dates, Cincinnati:

April 10

May 22

June 26

July 24

August 21

September 25

October 30

November 23

December 14