ANSWERS TO FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

PLEASE NOTE: This information is supplied for your convenience. Your attention is directed to the full text and provisions of Chapter 1101 of the Cincinnati Building Code and Sections 6 and 7 of Article XXI of the Administrative Code.

- 1) WHO MAY APPEAL? Any person who has a bona fide controversy with the Department of City Planning and Buildings as to the interpretation or application of a provision or provisions of laws or ordinances subject to administration by the Department of City Planning and Buildings, except in cases for which special Boards of Appeals are provided.
- 2) WHAT MAY BE APPEALED? A written ruling or a written order to make structural repairs, alterations, new construction or corrections.
- 3) WHEN MUST AN APPEAL BE FILED? Without exception, the complete appeal package pursuant to Item #5 below must be filed within thirty calendar days from the date of the written ruling or order.
- 4) WHAT ARE THE GROUNDS FOR APPEAL? The appeal shall be based on one or more of the following grounds, to wit:
 - A) That the ruling or order is erroneous or constitutes and erroneous application of the particular provisions of the Ohio Building Code, the Cincinnati Building Code or related laws or ordinances involved, or is otherwise contrary to law;
 - B) That alternative arrangement, method or material is available or feasible whereby the strict application of a particular provision or provisions may be modified without defeating the public safety, health and general welfare purpose and intent of the provisions of the Ohio Building Code or Cincinnati Building Code; or
 - C) A literal enforcement of Chapter 1117 CBC, the administration thereof, or any rule or regulations made thereunder, will result in an undue hardship.
- 5) HOW TO FILE? Complete this form and deliver or send to Majed Dabdoub, P.E., Secretary to the Board of Building Appeals, 3300 Central Parkway, Cincinnati, Ohio 45225. This form must be notarized and accompanied by:
 - A) An adjudication letter (a copy of the written ruling or written order being appealed) signed by the Plans Examiner or Inspector and the City's Chief Building Official.
 - B) A nonrefundable filing fee in the sum of fifty-three dollars ($53.00) for appeals relative to RCO-1, 2, & 3 Family or one hundred fifty eight dollars ($158.00) for Multi-Family/Commercial. (Make checks payable to "The City of Cincinnati"), and
 - C) Pursuant to above Item #4, a supporting statement (Equivalency Letter) outlining the proposed alternative arrangement or argument to be offered for the Board's consideration. An appeal based in whole or in part on hardship requires that an estimate or bid in detail, estimating the cost of compliance, a statement of income and alternative safety proposals to ensure an equivalent degree of safety, must be submitted.
 - D) Submit nine copies of the packet of A, B and C above. Any drawings or maps included cannot be larger than 11"X 17".
- 6) WHAT AUTHORITY DOES THE BOARD HAVE? The Board of Building Appeals has full authority to affirm, modify, reverse, or set aside the ruling or order appealed from, and its decision shall be final.
- 7) WHEN ARE THE HEARINGS HELD? The Board of Building Appeals regularly meets the first Thursday of each month at 1:30 P. M unless a holiday requires a change in the date. The BBA Schedule is on our website www.cincinnati-oh.gov. Your case will be set before the Board as the case load and schedule permits. You will be notified in writing at least ten (10) days prior to your hearing of the actual time, date and location.
- 8) HOW WILL I KNOW WHAT DECISION THE BOARD REACHED? Decisions are made in open session at the conclusion of the particular case. The decision will be signed at the following month's hearing and promptly mailed to the owner of the premises, the appellant, and the city agencies involved.
