

THE CINCINNATI POST, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 29, 1958.

The Town's Talking

Police to Play It by Ear

IF YOU see a policeman wearing a hearing aid, it's not because he's deaf. The little ear buttons really are transistor radio receivers, and enable Station X to control foot officers just like cruisers. It's all experimental so far, and the only places you might see such an officer would be downtown or out Hyde Park way.

* * *

